

History and Foundations of Physics

MEETING 6.2      MAR 25, 2025

The Role of Intuition in Science

- Can scientific knowledge be entirely articulated, or is experience and intuition always indispensable?
- How do scientists' intuitions shape the direction and methodology of their research?
- What are the implications of an intuition-driven science in the age of computational science and AI?

Time: 5:30pm

Location: Kline Tower (KT), Room 401
